

New England Baptist Hospital

Continuing Medical Education Evaluation Summary Ortho GR

Program Title: Ars Moriendi: The 'Good' Death in the 21st Century

Date: 1/15/2014

Attendance Count: 50

Number of Evaluations: 23

Professional Status Totals

MD/DO: 13 RN/NP: 2 PA: 3 PT: 0 other: 3

Objectives Overall Goal - Response Totals and Averages

1 = below expectation 2 = met expectation 3 = exceeded expectation	----- Total -----
	1	2	3
Define the 'good' death	0	3	20
Identify two current hallmarks of hospice and palliative care	0	1	22
Define the benefits of 'grief work' prior to death	0	2	21
Evaluate the arts as both professional and personal resource	0	1	20
	0	0	0
	0	0	0
Mean: 2.92

Effectiveness of the speaker

1 = below expectation 2 = met expectation 3 = exceeded expectation	----- Total -----
	1	2	3

Knowledge expertise enhanced program

Sandra L. Bertman, PhD, FT	0	0	23
Ars Moriendi: The 'Good' Death in the 21st Century

Teaching methods appropriate for content and objectives

Sandra L. Bertman, PhD, FT	0	0	23
Ars Moriendi: The 'Good' Death in the 21st Century
Mean: 2.98

Evaluate each of the following

	Disagree	Neutral	Agree
This program met my personal goal	0	2	21
The teaching methods were appropriate	0	2	21
Content was related to the objectives	0	1	22
Content was applicable to my area of practice	0	2	21
Physical environment was conducive to learning	0	3	20
Physical environment was easily accessible (location)	0	0	23
There was freedom from bias toward commercial products	0	0	23
Time of day was appropriate	0	1	22
Length of program was appropriate	0	0	0

New England Baptist Hospital

Continuing Medical Education Evaluation Summary Ortho GR

Program Title: Ars Moriendi: The 'Good' Death in the 21st Century

Date: 1/15/2014

For Physicians and Nurses only: Changes / enhancements I can make in my practice as a result of this progra

Medical Management: 3 Diagnostic Screening: 1 Treatment Management: 5 Surgical Technique: 1

Other: 0

Comments:

Wonderful speaker!!

Loved it.

Excellent!