

Keynote Speaker:
Sandra Bertman, Ph.D.

This event is sponsored by a generous grant from:
HARTZ Physical Therapy

RSVP:
Registration must be received by May 2.

Register early, as space is limited.

Suffering, The Human Connection and the Self-Reflective Clinician

Friday, May 12 • 9:00 - 11:00 AM
at The Eden Resort Inn and Conference Center
222 Eden Road (Rts. 30 & 272), Lancaster, PA

Science may give us the tools for curing,
But it is the humanities that give us the tools for caring.

Insights from the arts and humanities are antidotes to burnout and compassion fatigue for even the most seasoned clinicians. This presentation demonstrates how arts challenge, instruct, and buttress us in our endeavor to stay present with another's suffering.

Dr. Bertman is Program Director of Medical Humanities and the Arts in Palliative Care at Boston College Graduate School of Social Work. Dr. Bertman edited "Grief and the Healing Arts, Creative Therapy," available at the discounted price of $30 on May 12.

This workshop is free of charge to those attending.

For more information, call the PATHways Center for Grief & Loss at 391-2413 or 733-0699.

---

Registration Form

Suffering, The Human Connection and the Self-Reflective Clinician Friday, May 12, 2006

Name: _____

Organization: _____

Position/Title: _____

Address: _____
_____

Telephone #: _____

Continuing education credits are available for licensed PA social workers. A $10 check, payable to Hospice of Lancaster County, must be presented on the day of the workshop. Please indicate your license number if you are a Social Worker and require CEU's: _____

Mail completed registration form to: Hospice of Lancaster County, PATHways Center for Grief & Loss, 685 Good Drive, PO Box 4125, Lancaster, PA 17604-4125.

