

Through the Lens of Grief: Modalities for Meaning Making

2006 PASTORAL CARE & EDUCATION CONFERENCE

Thursday, November 30, 2006

Jefferson Alumni Hall,
10th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, PA

Time: 8:15 am to 4:30 pm

Keynote speaker: Sandra L. Bertman, PhD
Research Professor in Palliative Care, Graduate School of Social Work, Boston College. Founding Director, Program of Medical Humanities and Arts in Healthcare, University of Massachusetts Medical School and Graduate School of Nursing. Her publication and media credits include: Facing Death: Images, Insights and Interventions, Grief and the Healing Arts: Creativity as Therapy, the film Dying and the United Press International award winning radio show Sing a Song of Dying.

Visit www.SandraBertman.com

Workshops featuring the creative arts and the expression of grief including the visual arts, music, poetry, journaling, dance and horticulture.

Conference objectives:

- To understand the depth of human response to suffering, death and grief
- To explore unique personal expressions and experiences of the grief process
- To discover creative activities of coping and adapting that support the healing journey

A full day conference with CE credits offered. The inclusion of components related to spirituality and emotions enhances the quality of patient care.

Sponsors:

Thomas Jefferson University Hospitals
Conversations: A Forum for Spirituality and Science at Jefferson
Department of Pastoral Care and Education
Jefferson College of Health Professions

Jefferson Staff: free • Other Professionals: $95 • Students/Chaplains: $55
Registration required. Call 1-800-JEFF-NOW or visit www.jeffersonhospital.org/pastoralcare.
Click on Upcoming Events. For more information call 215-955-6336

Thomas
Jefferson
University

Jefferson
College of Health Professions

Thomas
Jefferson
University
Hospital